BLESSING OF GRADUATES

Eternal God, in your will we find purpose, and in your wisdom we find our joy. Bless all graduates who have completed a course of study and now begin a new part of their lives. Let them not be troubled about yesterday, nor anxious about tomorrow, but let them live fully this day which you have made. + Let them use the gifts they have received in their studies that they may become a source of inspiration and blessing for the world. And when each day is ended, give them delight in knowing that good work you have begun in them shall come to completion in you. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

ORDINARY TIME AND MARRIAGES

We enter into Ordinary Time with these two important solemnities of our Christian faith—The Most Holy Trinity today and the Body and Blood of Christ next weekend. June is a month when many marriages take place. Couples should not only think about but incorporate the mysteries of the Trinity and the Eucharistic into married life. One of the new options for couples is to process together to the altar of God as in the beginning of a Sunday Mass, surrounded by a singing congregation that mirrors the beginning of a Sunday liturgy, thus expressing a greater emphasis on Trinitarian love and on the beauty of the Eucharist. The marriage rite then expressing not only as a union of husband and wife but that of the believing community as well. Truly this is a sacramental moment.

CATHOLIC SOCIAL SERVICES COLLECTION

Remember to bring in your disposable diapers and baby wipes to help Catholic Social Services. This collection will continue until Father's Day. Thank you for your generosity.

“As Christians, we experience a relationship through the Trinity, which theologians have likened to a “dance” or “choreography” (Greek perichoresis). The Trinity dances around us, pulling us into the divine embrace through the greatness of God, the humanity of the Son, and the Spirit that breathes us into action. + The Trinity calls us tirelessly to join this dance through our own relationships and commitments—to be present among and between others, and to seek to be compassionate, faithful and forgiving.”
Mahrin Leonard-Fleckman (Professor of Hebrew Studies at College of the Holy Cross, Worcester, MA)

Scripture Reflection

The Church worships one God that believers encounter three ways. God the Father is complete mystery, as this Sunday's responsorial Psalm declares. Throughout the psalm, the prophet declares that God is greater than human artifacts, natural phenomena, or a cosmic power. God created these things and is praiseworthy and exalted above all of them. + In this Sunday's first reading, Moses encounters this enigmatic Creator. The strange description highlights the mysterious nature of Israel's God. This enigmatic being is nevertheless profoundly merciful and careful to fulfill promises. God has promised Israel freedom and a home of their own, and God was now acting to make that happen. + This same merciful God appears in the Sunday's Gospel. God's presence comes in the world as Jesus Christ. In one important way Jesus is distinct from the God of Israel: the Son is really human. In other important ways the Son is identical to the God that Israel knows. He is similarly mysterious, confounding his opponents and sometimes perplexing even his disciples. Also like the God of Israel, Jesus is merciful and faithful, joining humanity to share the love God has for us. + Even after the Son's ascension, experiences of God's love and peace remained, as St. Paul reminds the Corinthians. This was the work of the Holy Spirit, who continued Christ's work of salvation. The Holy Spirit also resembled the Father's mysterious presence and everlasting fidelity. As Paul's blessing indicates, wherever one person of the Trinity appears, all three are present. + Within the mysterious God of Israel lay the seeds to understand the incarnate Son. Those who encountered the Son found in his loving presence the clues that they needed to understand the Spirit. Those who live in the Spirit discover the infinite depths of the mysterious Father. At the heart of reality and of our faith is a community of love.

Questions to Ponder

In what ways does St. Paul ask the Corinthians to live out the work of the Spirit? + Have you encountered Christ's mercy? + How can following Christ's example put you in touch with the Spirit?

The Practice of Charity

God is relationship: The Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit united in love and manifesting that love to humanity eternally. Made in the likeness of God, we also live in relationship, with God and with each other. + We maintain rightly ordered relationships by strengthening our likeness to God. This weekend, reflect on the attributes of the Father, Son and Holy Spirit. Imitate God the Creator by doing something to honor his creation—go for a walk, pick up trash, volunteer at a humane society, pray to St. Francis for protection for all God's creatures. + How might you restore justice in your community, even in a small way, like God the Son? Write or call your political representatives and encourage them to support policy that is just. + How are you being called to teach and enlighten, like God the Spirit? Look for opportunities to support religious education in your parish.

A PRAYER FOR THOSE WHO ARE TRAVELING

We entrust those who are leaving to the hands of the Lord. We pray that he will give them prosperous journey and that, as they travel, they will praise him in all his creatures; that they will experience God's own goodness in the hospitality they receive and bring the Good News of salvation to all those they meet; that they will be courteous to all; that they will greet the poor and the afflicted with kindness and know how to comfort and help them. + All powerful and merciful God, you led the children of Israel on dry land, the waters of the sea; you guided the Magi to your Son by a star. Help these our brothers and sisters and give them a safe journey. Under your protection let them reach their destination and come at last to the eternal haven of salvation. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.
